The entries of an invertible $n \times n$ matrix A are integers.

When are all the entries of A^{-1} integers?

(Always? Never? Sometimes?)